

Reunion September 16-18, 2011

Our schedule is flexible. Join the group for any or all activities as you like. Look to www.campavalon.cc for the latest information.

Friday September 16, 2011

- Drop In at the Laffey's for a visit with Laff and friends. Sit on the deck, walk down to Crow's Pond and around Avalon Point

This will also be our check-in point for the afternoon in case people are trying to see who has arrived, where they are staying, phone numbers, etc.

5:00 – 7:00 Meet & Greet at the Laffeys
Beer/Wine/Soda – Munchies on the back lawn

7:00 – 9:00 Sundaes at the Laffeys

- Keith and his wife Lilla are serving up Avalon-style Sundaes at the Laffeys (bring your camp/life photos to share)

9:00 – ?? Informal gathering at the Squire or watering hole of your choosing

No formal dinner on Friday night. Feel free to bring something along to the Laffeys, dine before or after – or just make a dinner of hors d'oeuvres, munchies and ice cream.

Saturday September 17, 2011

- 9:00—12:00 A.M. Sail (For anyone interested in sailing)
 - Jill Abrams Klein is helping to arrange boats for an A.M. Sail in Little/Big Bay for anyone interested. We'll try to mix things up to allow those who haven't sailed in years with those who sail regularly so don't let a rusty tiller hold you back!

OR

- 10:30 - 12:00 Looking for Avalon folks? Check in at the Hot Chocolate Sparrow in Orleans. Nothing formal at the Sparrow but it will give you a convenient place to hang out, visit and catch up before heading to the Farnhams.
- 12:30 – 2:30 Box Lunch at the Farnhams – East Orleans
 - Kris Potter Farnham will host lunch at her in-laws home in East Orleans. Sandwiches can be ordered from the Last Stop Deli or Sir Crickets (we'll pick them up and deliver them) – or feel free to pack your own! We'll provide the soft drinks, water, chips and dessert for everyone.
- 2:30 – 4:30 All Day at Nauset (okay, its only the afternoon and some people may need a Rest Hour)
 - The Farnham's home is just above Nauset Beach so people can walk down to the beach. Bring your own towels, beach chairs and sun screen.

If you have a hankering for onion rings at Nauset, you'll need to take a short drive down the way to the public beach.

OR

Christina Dillon Cohen invites folks to come down to Avalon Point and use their dock. Jill Abrams Klein has offered to bring her Whaler over to Crow's Pond. People can enjoy the beach, shop in Chatham, hang out with friends, etc.

- 5:00 – 10:00ish Dinner at the Cohens at Avalon Point
 - Christina Dillon Cohen and family will host a casual evening of Avalon-style fun at their home at Avalon Point.

We'll be self-catering the dinner with a menu of Grilled Chicken, Pulled-Pork Barbeque, Baked Beans, Potato Salad, Cole Slaw, Pasta Salad plus Birthday Cake for Laff who turned 80 in January. There will be light hors d'oeuvres, beer, wine, soft drinks served before dinner.

Sunday

- 9:00 – 10:00 Donuts and coffee Location TBA (No Charge)

Final gathering for goodbyes before people head out.

Looking for a place to stay???
